Labor:

Audiences Services Mgr, Stage Manager	$20/hr
House Manager	$15/hr
Crew members	$12/hr

All events must employ a Stage Manager and Audience Services Manager to insure safety, protect equipment and assist with emergencies. The Audience Services Manager may determine that the front of house position can be downgraded to a House Manager depending on the size and complexity of the event. The user may provide crew members in certain areas but all crew personnel must be approved by the UT Technical Director or Stage Manager.

Conditions of Use:

If the facility is approved for your use, you agree to abide by the following regulations:

1. All events must comply with KU non-smoking policy.
2. There will be no food or drink in any production area or in the house and carpeted area of the lobby.
3. A member of the University Theatre technical staff or designate must be PRESENT during all times you occupy the facility.
4. All scenery, special effects, and properties must be approved by the University Theatre Technical Director.
5. All rigging must be directly supervised by the University Theatre staff member in charge.
6. The University Theatre Technical Director or Stage Manager will determine the number and length of time crew members will be needed.
7. The application will be reviewed by The University Theatre's Artistic Director, Technical Director, Stage Manager, Manager of Audience Services, and the Managing Director. A final decision will be made by the Chair of the Department of Theatre after consulting with the reviewers.
8. If the request is approved, notice will be sent to the sponsoring organization and copies will be made for staff members. If the organization is not a University agency, the Managing Director will write an agreement to be signed by both parties. Non-University organizations must provide proof of insurance with the signed agreement. If the sponsor is an organization within the University, a letter will be sent to confirm the reservation which will identify the financial responsibility of that organization.

9. The agency should make all payments to The University Theatre with the exception of the personnel wages. All personnel must be paid individually with funds other than State of Kansas or KU Endowment funds.
